Council, Mayor, Clerk and Works Board Clash After Latter is Abolished.

Special to The News-Times: MICHIGAN CITY, Ind., July 13 .-Mayor Fred C. Miller and City A.t' M. J. Kenefick attempted to gain control of city affairs at a meeting of the common council which conof members of the council to permit the meeting to end in a disturbance, which would probably render all decisions illegal. Mayor Miller vetoed the resolution of the city council, abolishing the board of public works and after bitter debate, the council finally passed the measure over the mayor's veto and the board of public works was declared no longer ex-board of works, although declared lead at last night's meeting, attempted to meet Tuesday morning in the city clerk's office. Stychalski, however, refused to act as clerk for the board and the meeting was held without him. The outlawed board ings to discuss problems pertaining Mr. and Mrs. Dan W. Simms, and passed a resolution stopping clerk's salary, but since 'here is not also pay the clerk his salary.
